"I never thought I would be able to walk again, but the Cambodia Trust helped me so much, fitting me with leg braces. And then they got me a bicycle so I could get to school. When I grow up I want to be a teacher." Suon, 12, who has been affected by polio

"For years I couldn't walk properly, but then the Cambodia Trust gave me comfortable prosthetic limbs. I go back to the clinic to have them checked every few months and it has made my life much easier. I also got a small grant and training to help me start a motorbike repair business. Now I can earn enough money to feed my family." Landmine survivor Samol

The Cambodia Trust offers a helping hand out of poverty for Cambodia's landmine survivors and other disadvantaged people with disabilities. Our work is making a difference - but we need your help.

£100 will provide a disabled person with a prosthetic limb or orthopaedic brace, which will last 6 months to 2 years.

£30 will provide a bicycle to enable a child with disabilities to get to school.
